New Testament – Who is Jesus Christ?

Featured Passage: 1 Corinthians 10

Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob all had a personal relationship with God. Moses saw God and talked with Him (Exodus 33:18-23, Deuteronomy 34:10). How can this be true when the scriptures state that no one has seen God at any time (John 1:18)? We can understand the answer to this question when we understand that there are two God beings in the God family. God, who was later known as the Father, has never interacted directly with mankind, and no man has ever seen or spoken with Him. The Word who became Jesus Christ was the God of Israel.

- Name a few famous Bible characters. Can you think of some ways God interacted with the people you named?
- Can you name some important miracles the God performed for His people in the Old Testament? What miracle for the Israelites relates to the memory verse below?
- Who gave Moses the Ten Commandments?
- What did God give the Israelites to eat in the wilderness?
- Why did God give Israel judges and prophets?
- Who was the Being who became Jesus Christ?

1 Corinthians 10:4

"...and all drank the same spiritual drink. For they drank of that spiritual Rock that followed them, and that Rock was Christ."
