

Idea Kernel:

We need to do a better job of praying for those who are sick in our congregation.

The example that we set in our job is important as a Christian.

We need to avoid getting caught up in pornography.

We should improve the quality of our conversation at church.

How we use our time is a reflection of our Christian character.

We need to become better at encouraging others.
